THE PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION Nonie Booth

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON: Mark 5: 21-29 Nonie Booth

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

THE SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON: Mark 5: 30-42 The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease." While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

THE SERMON: "Refusing to Accept Things the Way They Are" The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

◆THE HYMN: "They Met to Read the Bible" (Please see reverse side of announcement insert) ST. CHRISTOPHER

The hymn, "They Met to Read the Bible", found on the reverse side of the announcement insert, was written by The Rev. Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, co-pastor of Limestone Presbyterian Church in Wilmington, DE, following the murders of the nine people at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, SC. The three men and six women were gunned down while attending a prayer meeting. This hymn is a prayer that we, as a society, will find courage to change and to hope for justice, pray for justice and to work for justice. The hymn is set to the tune of the well-known hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus." The Rev. Gillette has made the hymn available for free use by local churches and in ecumenical services.

◆THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Spoken in Unison) (From the Iona Community)

We believe that God is present in the darkness before dawn; in the waiting and uncertainty where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms, and the sun rises over barbed wire. We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity. We affirm a faith that takes us beyond the safe place: into action, into vulnerability and into the streets. We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line; to bear responsibility, take risks, live powerfully and face humiliation; to stand with those on the edge; to choose life and be used by the Spirit for God's new community of hope. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER (Spoken in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Welcome!

Welcome to the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Our Church exists to worship God in Jesus Christ in Word and Sacrament; to join others to know the joy of God's forgiveness in Jesus Christ; to grow under the Lordship of Christ and to serve Christ's world in His name. We invite you to share with us our trust in Jesus Christ and to join us as we strive to:

- ❖ Grow and strengthen our FAITH,
- ❖ Love and support our FAMILY,
- ❖ Reach out to our FRIENDS in need.

We encourage you to read "Sue's Story," the inspiration behind these goals in its entirety, on our website, on a brochure in the Gathering Space or on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall. We hope you will be inspired as we have been.

At OBPC, we recognize all our visitors as God's children, united as brothers and sisters in Christ. We hope our service inspires you and strengthens your faith. We hope you will join us again in celebration and worship to God. If you are interested in becoming a member or would like to know more about our church and our programs, please contact us!

Our church believes providing worship for visitors is a vital part of our mission. Our building was planned to accommodate the many visitors who come to this vacation community. This places an additional financial challenge on our resident membership. We need and welcome financial support from our visitors.

◆ THE OPENING PRAYER Nonie Booth

◆♣ THE OPENING HYMN NO. 664: "Morning Has Broken" BUNESSAN

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Spoken in unison)

Dear God, trusting you does not always come easy when each day we are faced with the ugliness of the world. We have a hard time believing that love conquers fear. We are not convinced that power comes through weakness. At times, we cannot conceive of how you could heal and restore us. Forgive our lack of faith, O God, and renew our trust in you. Amen.
