God of light, shine brightly in our world through the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Your grace is more abundant than our sinfulness so that the light continues to shine despite our world's love of darkness. Forgive us and help us to share the love of Christ. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION Margaret Brown, Liturgist

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON: Matthew 2:1-12 Margaret Brown, Liturgist

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

THE CHRISTMAS POEM "Endless Night" By Judith Hahs
Jody Moore (Joseph) & Brenda Brown (Mary)

THE SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON: John 1:1-5, 10-16 The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'") From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

LEADER: This is the Word of the Lord.

PEOPLE: Thanks be to God

THE SERMON: "Christmas Grace" The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

~ We Respond to the Word ~

◆THE HYMN NO. 123: "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" CAROL

◆THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Spoken in Unison)From A Declaration of Faith, Ch. 4.1

The Lord sent the promised deliverer to God's people. We affirm that Jesus was born of a woman as is every child, yet born of God's power as was no other child. In the person and work of Jesus, God himself and a human life are united but not confused, distinguished but not separated. The coming of Jesus was itself the coming of God's promised rule. Through his birth, life, death, and resurrection, he brings about the relationship between God and humanity that God always intended.

THE PASTORAL PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER (Spoken in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

THE OFFERING OF GIFTS Jim Perry, Greeting Elder

THE ORGAN OFFERTORY: "The Birthday of a King"arr. J. Evans

◆THE DOXOLOGY: "Joy to the World" (Verses 1 & 2) ANTIOCH

Joy to the world! The Lord is come.
Let earth receive her King
Let every heart
Prepare Him room
And heaven and nature sing
And heaven and nature sing
And heaven and heaven and nature sing

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns
Let men their songs employ
While fields and floods
Rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy

ROOM IN THE INN HELP NEEDED

OBPC will be assisting Roanoke Island Presbyterian Church, in Manteo, January 1-7, 2017. RIPC will be the host and provide breakfast, and our church members will provide some of the dinners and supplies for bag lunches.

There are two ways you can help. One way is to provide a dinner. We will need someone (or a small group of people) to provide and serve (and clean up afterwards) a meal on January 1, 2, 3, 6, and 7. Dinners will consist of a main dish, 2 sides, bread, and dessert. RIPC will also have people at their church, to show you where to set up, and otherwise assist. The second way you can help is by giving a monetary donation to OBPC so the Outreach Committee can purchase fixings for bagged lunches. Either way, your help would be greatly appreciated. There is a sign-up sheet for dinners in the Gathering Space.

Update on 2017 Budget

“The Stewardship and Finance Committees wish to express their gratitude to all of those who made pledges to the 2017 Stewardship Campaign on Consecration Sunday and the weeks since. Your financial gifts further the work of God through our church and your pledge commitment enables OBPC to establish an annual budget. Our church’s budget is prepared by the Finance Committee, adopted by the Session, and is managed very carefully.

Some members and families have increased their pledges and others continue to pledge at the same rate as for 2016. However, some have not yet pledged and the pledge total is now approximately $14,000.00 less than last year. This shortfall promises to affect the maintenance of our facilities, our service to the community, and our programs.

The Outer Banks Presbyterian Church offers a spiritual dwelling and a nurturing place for those who call it home and who seek shelter in difficult times, strong roots for our personal and collective faith, and seeds of hope for the future. Like a living tree our church also needs care and support to thrive—it requires us to be good stewards. If you have not yet made a pledge, please prayerfully complete your pledge card and return it to the church office or place it in the collection plate any Sunday in December. It is important for all of us to participate.”

In Loving Memory of

The Rev. Dr. L. Richard Batzler
1922 –2016

A Service of Remembrance to the Resurrection will be held at the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church on Saturday, January 7, 2017 at 1:00 pm in the sanctuary. A reception will follow. Burial will take place in Frederick, MD at a later date.

Welcome!

Welcome to the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Our Church exists to worship God in Jesus Christ in Word and Sacrament; to join others to know the joy of God’s forgiveness in Jesus Christ; to grow under the Lordship of Christ and to serve Christ’s world in His name. We invite you to share with us our trust in Jesus Christ and to join us as we strive to:

- ❖ Grow and strengthen our FAITH,
- ❖ Love and support our FAMILY,
- ❖ Reach out to our FRIENDS in need.

We encourage you to read “Sue’s Story,” the inspiration behind these goals in its entirety, on our website, on a brochure in the Gathering Space or on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall. We hope you will be inspired as we have been.

At OBPC, we recognize all our visitors as God’s children, united as brothers and sisters in Christ. We hope our service inspires you and strengthens your faith. We hope you will join us again in celebration and worship to God. If you are interested in becoming a member or would like to know more about our church and our programs, please contact us!

Our church believes providing worship for visitors is a vital part of our mission. Our building was planned to accommodate the many visitors who come to this vacation community. This places an additional financial challenge on our resident membership. We need and welcome financial support from our visitors.
