Welcome to Outer Banks Presbyterian Church! We are glad that you joined us for this special program and hope that you will truly experience God’s presence as you gather in this sacred space. We hope that the music and the spoken words will touch your spirit and your heart this evening.

If you are visiting with us, we would love to have you consider making Outer Banks Presbyterian Church your church home. We are an active congregation and there are many ways that you can get involved here. We have a number of fellowship groups that meet regularly, we are active in numerous mission projects throughout the community, and we offer several Bible Studies and classes.

During this Lenten season, we hope that you will join us again to worship almighty God. We will be having a Maundy Thursday dinner and worship service this Thursday, March 24, at 6:00 pm where Holy Communion will be served in remembrance of Jesus’ Last Supper with his disciples. Next Sunday, March 27, is Easter and we hope that you will be present for the joyous celebration as we worship our resurrected and victorious Lord. On Easter we will have two identical worship services at 8:30 am and 10:00 am. Typically we have one worship service on Sunday mornings at 10:00 am. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our congregation, please stop by our Visitor’s Center in the Gathering Space, visit our website, or speak with me.

Blessings in Christ,
The Reverend Dr. Jody Moore

~ About our Guest Conductor ~

Ken Clifton was born in Florida and raised in East Tennessee, lived in New York City for many years, but now calls Florida his home! Ken graduated with a degree in Piano Performance from the Stetson University School of Music in Deland, Fl. After college he accepted his first job at the First Baptist Church of Orlando as one of the staff accompanists. It was there that he began to grow as a pianist, arranger, and choral director. At one time he was in charge of the youth choirs and worked with over 200 teenagers every week. He arranged “Born to Give us Hope,” the Christmas program that was attended by over 45,000 people. During his time in Orlando, Ken had the opportunity to begin a long- standing relationship with Disney. He began his career as a vocal coach working for Mickey. He also had the opportunity to play the piano for Kathy Lee Gifford on “Live with Regis and Kathy Lee” and accompanied Jodi Benson (voice of Ariel, the Little Mermaid) on CNN’s “Larry King Live”.

He then began his career in musical theatre as a music director/conductor. In his career he has had the good fortune of working with so many talented people and some icons of stage and screen like Sally Struthers and Rue McClanahan. The musicals he’s worked on have ranged from classics such as “Fiddler on the Roof”, “Guys and Dolls” and “Hello Dolly” to more contemporary ones such as “The Producers”, “The Full Monty” and “Les Mis”. As a vocal coach, Ken was asked to be one of the coaches for the “Voice of McDonalds,” a vocal competition held at their Global Conference in Orlando. Over ten thousand people originally auditioned and 11 were chosen to compete. CNN and the Today Show covered the event. Also he got to work with Academy Award winner, Jennifer Hudson, to prepare her for her final callback for her role in “Dreamgirls”.

He wrote the opening production number for the 2008 Rose Bowl Parade; a show for the Disney Cruise Line, recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra and two musicals produced in Florida. His children’s musical “Being a Bee” was produced by Macy’s at Herald Square and played for Tony nominated singer/actor John Tartaglia at Feinstein’s in NYC.

Ken spent six summers as music director of “The Lost Colony” in Manteo. While there he got the chance to meet the wonderful people of the Outer Banks. One of the friends he found here was Jason Evans and Ken truly considers it an honor to join with Jason and the good people of the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church for his seventh event with the Music Ministry of Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Ken currently lives in Vero Beach, FL where he works at The Riverside Theatre where he writes orchestrations, conducts, and accompanies musical productions.

The Triumphal Entry
And the multitudes going before Him, and those who followed after were crying out, saying the highest.” Matthew 21:9

"Let Heaven Ring, Hosanna!" ................................................................. arr. David T. Clydesdale

The Upper Room
And while they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said, “Take, eat: this is My body.” And when He had taken the cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you; for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins…” Matthew 26: 26-28

“An Expression of Gratitude” ............................................................... David Schwoebel

The Trial and Crucifixion
And those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered…Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him saying, “Are you the King of the Jews?” And Jesus said to him, “It is as you say.”...Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Preatorium and gathered the whole Roman court around Him. And they stripped Him, and put a scarlet robe on Him… And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull.... and when they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments among themselves, casting lots... And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit
Now the centurion and those with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earth quake and the things that were happening, became very frightened and said, “Trul y, this was the Son of God.” Matthew 26:57; 27:11, 27-28, 50-54

He gave his life; what more could He give?
O how He loves you; O how He loves me;
O how He loves you and me!

Jesus to Calvary did go; His love for sinners to show.
What He did there brought hope from despair.
O how He loves you; O how He loves me;
O how He loves you and me!

“The Majesty and Glory of your Name” .................................................Tom Fettke
The Resurrection

Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave...And the angel answered and said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said. Come and see where He was lying. And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead.” Matthew 28: 1, 5-7

“All Rise”........................................................................................................... arr. David T. Clydesdale
Pamela Tanner, soloist

“All Rise”........................................................................................................... arr. David T. Clydesdale
Rod Hamilton, soloist

“Crown Him” ......................................................................................................... arr. David T. Clydesdale

(Congregation stands and joins when directed)

Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon His throne:
Hark! How the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of love: Behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified.
No angel in the sky can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown Him the Lord of life: Who triumphed o’er the grave,
Who rose victorious to the strife, For those He came to save.
His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown Him the Lord of heaven: One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him given from yonder glorious throne.
To Thee be endless praise, For Thou for us hast died;
Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days adored and magnified.
Amen!

♦ The Closing Remarks and Benediction ......................................................... The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

Welcome to the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Our Church exists to worship God in Jesus Christ in Word and Sacrament; to join others to know the joy of God’s forgiveness in Jesus Christ; to grow under the Lordship of Christ and to serve Christ’s world in His name. We invite you to share with us our trust in Jesus Christ and to join us as we strive to:

- Grow and strengthen our FAITH,
- Love and support our FAMILY,
- Reach out to our FRIENDS in need.

We encourage you to read “Sue’s Story,” the inspiration behind these goals in its entirety, on our website, on a brochure in the Gathering Space or on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall. We hope you will be inspired as we have been.

At OBPC, we recognize all our visitors as God’s children, united as brothers and sisters in Christ. We hope this musical inspires you and strengthens your faith. We hope you will join us again in celebration and worship to God. If you are interested in becoming a member or would like to know more about our church and our programs, please contact us!
