Music and lyrics by Harry Chapin (Based on the book, "The Cotton Patch Version of Matthew and John" by Clarence Jordan)

Produced by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Woodstock, Illinois.

COTTON PATCH GOSPEL is a full length musical drama based on the Gospel of Matthew. Because it is set in rural Georgia, the story is told with great emotion and humor. With original bluegrass music by Harry Chapin, this production brings the Gospel story alive in a new way!

About the performers:

Curtis Campbell, who plays Matthew (and over thirty other characters) is a retired United Methodist pastor who has served several congregations at Kitty Hawk United Methodist (2008-2011) and surrounding area as pastor and music director. He currently serves at Harbor UMC as traditional service music director. He has been a soloist with the Cape Fear Chorale, Wilmington Symphony, and NC Symphony.

Other cast members are Michael Commee of Henderson, NC - lifelong friend and musical partner of Curtis (both singing at the Circus Tent during the summer in the mid-70's; Mollie Philbin and Dave Spencer of Harbor United Methodist. Additional music is also provided by local bluegrass artist Derwin Hinson.
