February is the month that Valentine's Day is celebrated. While this holiday focuses on romantic love, it made me think about how we understand love as Christians. Love can mean so many things to so many different people. You may have heard before that in Greek (the language of the New Testament), there are four completely different words for love. When we say that God loves us, it is different from the love that we, as humans, have for each other. The Greek word for divine love is agape, which refers to an unconditional, all-consuming love. God's love is not dependent on our response; even when we are unfaithful, God loves us still. God longs to be in relationship with us, to connect with us.

Henry Drummond, in his book Love: The Greatest Thing in the World, describes for us how love is relevant to God's purpose for our lives (41-42). Drummond writes, "The real business of our lives is to have love's virtues molded into our characters. That is the supreme work we need to strive to accomplish in this world: to learn love. Life is full of opportunities for learning love. Every man and woman, every day, has a thousand of them. The world is not a playground; it is a classroom. Life is not a holiday, but an education, and the one eternal lesson for us all is how to love better. What makes someone a good ballplayer? Practice. What makes someone a good artist, a good sculptor, a good musician? Practice. What makes someone a good person? Practice. Nothing else. There is nothing capricious about religion. We do not develop the soul in different ways, under different laws, from those in which we develop the body and the mind. If you don't exercise your arm, you won't develop your biceps; and if you don't exercise your soul, you won't develop the strength of character, vigor of moral fiber, or beauty of spiritual growth. Love is not a thing of enthusiastic emotion. It is a rich, vigorous expression of the whole Christian character---the Christlike nature in its fullest development. And the constituents of this great character can only be built up by ceaseless practice."

On Super Bowl Sunday, February 5th, our youth will once again lead us in participating in the Souper Bowl of Caring offering to help fight hunger in our community. Please bring non-perishable foods with you to church and the youth will also take up a collection of monies that will be given to Beach Food Pantry. I am grateful for the many ways that our youth are engaged in mission projects and helping us to make a difference in the community.

The Bible Study that I have been teaching in January will continue each Tuesday in February. We will meet at 5:15 pm on February 7, 14, 21, and 28 as we will study Jesus' Sermon on the Mount together. I look forward to seeing you for meaningful conversation at our Tuesday Bible Study this month.

Peace in Christ,

Jody Moore

Sermons for February 2017

Outer Banks Presbyterian Church

The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

Perhaps Jesus' most famous sermon of all was his Sermon on the Mount, which he preached in the fifth, sixth, and seventh chapters of Matthew. Throughout the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus challenged the prevailing religious teachings and helped his followers understand God's kingdom in new and enlightening ways. We will listen to Jesus' insightful teachings to help guide our lives today.

February 5, 2017 Turning the Other Cheek Matthew 5:38-48

Jesus teaches us about loving all people, not just those who are kind to us. Jesus especially points out our obligation to love our enemies. The love that Jesus requires of us is not an emotion; it is a choice we make to act lovingly toward others, no matter what they may have done to us.

February 12, 2017 Avoiding Worry Matthew 6:24-34

Jesus tells us to not worry about our material possessions because God will provide for us what we need. Jesus asks us to consider the lilies of the field and other simple joys of life. We will explore what it means to have faith in God in the present and to trust in God's providence for our future.

February 19, 2017 Not Judging Others Matthew 7:1-5

Christians are unfortunately often known for the ways that we judge others, instead of the ways that we extend the Good News of the Gospel. Jesus encourages us to show compassion to others and not to judge other people more harshly than we would want to be treated ourselves. When our hearts are filled with harsh judgment, how can we claim Christ's mercy and grace?

February 26, 2017 A Solid Foundation Matthew 7:24-29

Jesus explains that all of us have a foundation that we build our lives upon. We are invited to rely on the solid foundation of faith in Christ. We are instructed to not only hear Christ's words, but to follow them in our daily lives. Jesus is the source of our hope and gives us a sense of purpose.

Calling all Singers

If you've ever thought about singing in the choir - now is the time. We would love to have you come to a practice and see if you would like to join us. You may have noticed a few empty spots recently – especially in the tenor/bass section. We have lost some members for various reasons and would love to fill those spots and more! We practice on Wednesday evenings in the choir room starting at 6 pm. And then on Sunday morning we gather at 9:15 am in the choir loft and briefly go over the worship service music for the morning.

There are no audition requirements or other such requirements – just a love of singing, fellowship with one another, a love of the Lord and the joy of singing His praises. And one of the best things about singing in the choir.....you don't have to worry about finding someone to sit with in the sanctuary.

If you have any questions just give Jason Evans (255-5042) or Nonie Booth (261-6058) a call. Just try us – you'll like us!!

Third Thursday Lunch: Feb. 16

Winter is almost over, well, at least in my mind! Our next Third Thursday lunch will be at the Jolly Roger (on Beach Road, behind K-Mart). The lunch will be on Thursday, February 16 at noon.

Everyone -- members AND friends -- is invited to come. You will select what you want to eat from their menu, and pay your own bill. Please contact Jeanne Martie by Sunday evening, February 12, if you are interested in attending -- 441-8608 or jlmartie@charter.net. It's important that I have a headcount to give to the restaurant so that we aren't scrambling for more chairs when we arrive. Thanks!

Jeanne

All church members and friends are invited to participate in a Progressive Dinner and White Elephant Gift Exchange. The event will take place on Saturday, February 25. The evening will consist of everyone meeting at the Lurie home for appetizers and beverages. Everyone will then be split up into groups of 6 or so people, and go to various homes for dinner. For the finale, we will all meet again at church (or someone's home if anyone volunteers) for dessert and coffee, and the gift exchange. What a fun way to spend a winter night!!

What is a White Elephant Gift Exchange? Every participant (couples bring two gifts) can wrap up something they have bought (no more than $10) or wrap up something from their house as a tasteful joke! All presents will be unmarked, and we take turns picking a present from the gift table, OR can steal from someone who has already gotten a gift.

So the first thing we'd like you to do is mark your calendar for February 25. The second thing we'd like you to do is consider if you want to host a small dinner group or the dessert/gift exchange. Don't worry if you can't host something. We still want you to come!

A sign-up sheet is in the church's gathering space, starting in January. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Lurie (karenluriernccm@gmail.com or 255-1866) or Jeanne Martie (jlmartie@charter.net or 441-8608).

With Gratitude

Dear OBPC,

Just a note to let you know how much Ken and I appreciate the members and friends of OBPC who helped to host our Room in the Inn guests at Roanoke Island Presbyterian Church in January! A number of folks from your congregation participated in preparing, serving, and cleaning up dinners on four evenings as well as providing lunch fixin's throughout the week. It was especially pleasing to note that some of those helping out were relatively new to our community and also to your church! Thanks especially go to Mollie Bass for checking in throughout the week to be sure there were ample supplies. Please pass on to Mollie, Kevin, Dorothy, Matt, Melinda, Rose, Tom, Sharon, and Barb, as well as their friends Linda, Ron, Veronica, and Brenda who also helped, how much their contribution of time, talent, treasure, and most of all compassion are appreciated. Guy, Russ, Scott, Cliff, Chris, Bert, Tyler and Walter expressed their gratitude for the hospitality shared many times over and were especially thankful during this past weekend of wintry weather. May you and your congregation be blessed as you are a blessing!

Sincerely,

Nancy Griffin

Dear OBPC Volunteers,

Volunteers from our church prepared four evening meals during the first week of January for homeless clients who were hosted by Roanoke Island Presbyterian Church. We also provided all the food for lunches all week. Many thanks to those who helped. They were Melinda Mogowski, Dorothy and Matt George and their daughter, Rosalyn Pugh, Linda Campbell, Veronica Reich, Tom Williamson, Sharon Aldridge, Barb Nowland, Warren Davis, Frank and Carol Moore, Nonie Booth, and Kevin Sheets.

Mollie Bass

Welcome Elder Class of 2019

Jean Basnight was born in Norfolk, VA. She attended Camellia Baptist Church where she sat on various committees, taught Sunday School and was a member of the choir and was also the church secretary/office administrator. She later moved with her family to Virginia Beach where Jim and Jean raised their two children. They attended St. Andrews United Methodist Church. There she served on various committees as well as church treasurer. She moved to Kill Devil Hills in 2001 and found a wonderful "home" at Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. She presently serves on various committees, sings in the choir, is an ordained Elder. Jean's hobbies include playing golf and Mah Jong.

Mollie Bass became a member of Outer Banks Presbyterian Church in October of 1996 by letter of transfer from Franklin Presbyterian Church in Franklin, Virginia. She has served three previous terms on Session and has been moderator of the Outreach and Witness Committee, Church Expansion Committee, and others. She is an active member of the Lydia Circle of Presbyterian Women and often teaches their Bible Study.

Family situations, geography and availability have dictated Jim Goes' family's church attendance and affiliation over the years. He was baptized and confirmed in a small New Jersey Episcopal church that five generations of his family had attended.

During WWII Jim attended a Dutch Reformed Church then they moved to a dairy farm where they attended a Lutheran church. Following Navy and Army service during the Korean War his first job took them to Virginia where they attended a Lutheran Church.

They moved north to New York where they attended an Episcopal Church until he moved to Mexico to build a pharmaceutical factory in Monterrey. While in Mexico they became active in the Union Church of Monterrey, a non-denominational, bi-lingual protestant church. Both Jim and his wife taught Sunday School and for two years he was chairman of the Congregational Board.

When they returned to the U.S. they came to North Carolina where they attended a Methodist Church because of its strong youth program. He retired early and moved to the Outer Banks (their 13th move) where he became active in the International Executive Service Corps, a Peace Corps type of organization for business and technical executives to improve industry in the third world. The assignments were usually for four months. Jim went on four assignments to Egypt, Indonesia and Zambia in Southern Africa.

Jim's wife died suddenly and he attended the All Saints' Episcopal Church where he was elected to the vestry. After some health problems, Jim started to attend Outer Banks Presbyterian where he found the religious and personal support that he needed. Jim says he feels honored to be selected to be an Elder and will devote his best efforts to merit your trust in him.

Presbyterian Women

All three (3) circles will meet together on Saturday, Feb. 11 at 12:00 noon at Duck Woods Country Club. The guest speaker will be Anne Graham from Outer Banks Hospital and she will be speaking on Women's Health Issues. Mollie Bass will lead the Bible study. Lunch reservations are due by Feb. 4 and must be made through your individual circle leader.

Outreach Thank-You

The Outreach Committee would like to thank everyone who donated to our Veterans Drive. The Webbs filled their car and took 12 bags of items to Hampton, VA for distribution to the Veterans on Christmas. A special thank you to the Faith Knitters for all their hard work. The red, white and blue shawls were wonderful. Thank you for making Christmas special for some of our Veterans.

May God Bless you all!

Evelyn and John Webb

Youth Group News

The youth of our church participated in the morning worship service on January 22. They assisted with ushering, music, liturgy and a wonderful skit about The Beatitudes. Enjoy some great pictures from the day!

Souper Bowl of Caring

Did you know?

- Nearly 50 million Americans live in poverty?
- 1 in 6 Americans face hunger every day?
- More than 630,000 people in the United States are homeless?
- 23% of those struggling went to college?
- Or that 16 million children live in food insecure households?

On Sunday, February 5 our youth will once again lead our church as we participate in the Souper Bowl of Caring. Started in 1990 by a Presbyterian pastor, Souper Bowl of Caring uses the energy of Super Bowl Sunday to tackle hunger in our own communities and beyond. Youth across the country collect food and money which is donated to local charities which feed hungry people. Last year, Souper Bowl of Caring generated over 8 million dollars with OBPC donating 197 pounds of food and $691 to the Beach Food Pantry.

On February 5, our youth will participate in the worship service assisting with music, skits, and more. Prior to the worship service, they will collect non-perishable foods and following the service, they will be stationed at the exits with pots and pans to collect money. All of our donations will stay local at the Beach Food Pantry, where the youth will weigh and stock the food when they deliver it. We hope you will participate in this mission project and join us as we TACKLE HUNGER.

Update on Procedures for Cancellation of a Worship Service or Activity

The Outer Banks recently had a weather event that brought dangerous rain, ice, snow and winds. Every effort was made to contact members and friends of the OBPC for cancellation of a Sunday service, but not everyone was reached. We learned that many of the phone numbers and email addresses are no longer accurate.

In January, the 2017 Session Elders received individual lists of members, for whom they personally provide a point of contact to the church. If you do not receive a call, email, or visit from an elder in the next few weeks, please notify the session clerk, 254-913-9648, or the church office, 252-441-5897. Also, be on the lookout for a bulletin insert for EVERY member to fill out to update our records. Thanks for keeping our records up-to-date!

January Session Highlights
