A Word from the Pastor

Welcome to Outer Banks Presbyterian Church! We are glad that you joined us for this special program and hope that you will truly experience God's presence as you gather in this sacred space. We are delighted to have you join us. We hope that the music and the spoken words will touch your spirit and your heart this evening.

If you are visiting with us, we would love to have you consider making Outer Banks Presbyterian Church your church home. We are an active congregation and there are many ways that you can get involved here. We have a number of fellowship groups that meet regularly, we are active in numerous mission projects throughout the community, and we offer several Bible Studies and classes.

During this Lenten season, we hope that you will join us again to worship almighty God. We will be having a Maundy Thursday dinner and worship service on Thursday, March 29, at 6:00 pm where Holy Communion will be served in remembrance of Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples. Sunday, April 1, is Easter and we hope that you will be present for the joyous celebration as we worship our resurrected and victorious Lord. On Easter we will have two identical worship services at 8:30 am and 10:00 am. On most other Sundays throughout the year, we typically have one worship service at 10:00 am. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our congregation, please stop by our Visitor's Center in the Gathering Space, visit our website, or speak with me.

Blessings in Christ,

The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

About our Guest Conductor

Ken Clifton was born in Florida and raised in East Tennessee, lived in New York City for many years, but now calls Florida his home! Ken graduated with a degree in Piano Performance from the Stetson University School of Music in Deland, Fl. After college he accepted his first job at the First Baptist Church of Orlando as one of the staff accompanists. It was there that he began to grow as a pianist, arranger, and choral director. At one time he was in charge of the youth choirs and had over 200 teens every week. He arranged "Born to Give us Hope," the Christmas program that was attended by over 45,000 people. During his time in Orlando, Ken had the opportunity to begin a long-standing relationship with Disney. He began his career as a vocal coach working for Mickey. He also had the opportunity to play the piano for Kathy Lee Gifford on "Live with Regis and Kathy Lee" and accompanied Jodi Benson (voice of Ariel, the Little Mermaid) on CNN's "Larry King Live."

He then began his career in musical theatre as a music director/conductor. In his career he has had the great good fortune of working with so many talented people and some icons of stage and screen like Sally Struthers and Rue McClannahan. The musicals he's worked on have ranged from classics such as "Fiddler on the Roof", "Guys and Dolls" and "Hello Dolly" to more contemporary ones such as "The Producers", "The Full Monty" and "Les Miz."

As a vocal coach, Ken was asked to be one of the coaches for the "Voice of McDonalds," a vocal competition held at their Global Conference in Orlando. Over ten thousand people originally auditioned and 11 were chosen to compete. CNN and the Today Show covered the event. Also he got to work with Academy Award winner, Jennifer Hudson, to prepare her for her final callback for her role in "Dreamgirls."

He wrote the opening production number for the 2008 Rose Bowl Parade; a show for the Disney Cruise Line, recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra and two musicals produced in Florida. His children's musical "Being a Bee" was produced by Macy's at Herald Square and played for Tony nominated singer/actor John Tartaglia at Feinstein's in NYC.

Ken spent six summers as music director of "The Lost Colony" in Manteo. While there he got the chance to meet the wonderful people of the Outer Banks. One of the friends he found here was Jason Evans and Ken truly considers it an honor to join with Jason and the good people of the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church for his seventh event with the Music Ministry of Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Ken currently lives in Vero Beach, FL where he works at The Riverside Theatre.

"Let Heaven Ring, Hosanna!" .....arr. David T. Clydesdale

*And while they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat: this is My body." ## The Trial and Crucifixion

And those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered... Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "It is as you say."... Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Pretorium and gathered the whole Roman court around Him. And they stripped Him, and put a scarlet robe on Him... And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull... and when they had crucified Him, they divided up His garments among themselves, casting lots... And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit... Now the centurion and those with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earth quake and the things that were happening, became very frightened and said, "Truly, this was the Son of God." Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave... And the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said. Come and see where He was lying. And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead..." ~ Matthew 28:1, 5-7
