Lenten Devotionals

The devotional is “Practicing Love” – Family Devotions for Lent written by Leah and Robyn Perrault. As Christians, we strive to live and love as Jesus did. In order to love well, we need to practice. And practicing as a family helps everyone to grow in their faith together each day. During Lent, we more sharply reflect upon the Word of God and upon modeling our behaviors after those of our Savior. This booklet is filled with reflections and activities that gently invite the whole family to practice love for Lent, even though love never goes out of season. These are available in the Gathering Space.

For the children, there will be an Alleluia! Puzzle Magnet which includes 7 magnets. The children can play with the Easter magnet scene and arrange it any way they wish on their refrigerator at home. These will be distributed in Children’s Church.

We are Thankful for our Willing Volunteers

A Word from Your Pastor

Jeanne and I have particularly appreciated this year's Lenten devotional Practicing Love, which is written by Leah and Robyn Perrault. Several of you have also commented to me how you have benefitted spiritually from reading the devotionals. One of the things that I have particularly liked about the devotional is that it offers concrete and simple ways for us to put into practice our Christian ideals for how to love God and our neighbors. For example, the devotional suggests that we can encounter God by taking the opportunity to spend time with those who are lonely or sad, writing down or sharing three ways that we experience God's love, or simply by taking a walk where our focus is on how we can listen to and grow closer to Jesus.

As I have been reading the devotional, I have been reminded of all of you because of the many ways that I see you concretely sharing love with one another and with our community. In recent months, it seems that almost every time I visit a church member who has been sick, recovering from surgery, or in need, I hear about another church member who has recently stopped by, sent a card, or brought a meal over. By reaching out, you are serving as Christ's hands and feet, doing his work and offering hope to one another.

I hope that you will join us in March, not only for worship on Sunday mornings, but also for our weekly Lenten worship services each Wednesday at noon and for our spring musical the weekend of March 17 and 18. In addition to those special services, we will once again have a dinner and worship service on Maundy Thursday, which is the night of Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples. Maundy comes from the Latin word "command" and refers to the new commandment that Jesus gave as he washed his disciples feet less than twenty-four hours before his death. Jesus' commandment is that we are to love one another as Christ has loved us, which means we are called to offer a sacrificial, self-giving love. On Maundy Thursday, March 29th, at 6:00 pm we will meet in the fellowship hall for a meal and a worship service that will include the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. I hope that you will participate in these special services and events during Lent that help us prepare our hearts, minds, and spirits for the glories of Easter.

Peace in Christ,

Jody Moore

A Note of Appreciation

"Your cards, prayers, calls and visits that I received after my accident were appreciated so very much. I am thankful to be so blessed with my wonderful church family. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Lenten Sermon Series on Covenant

Many of us are familiar with signing contracts whether we are borrowing money, buying a car, or agreeing to a new job. Contracts are legally binding agreements based on the idea that we have to have something in writing so that both sides will keep up their end of the bargain. Unlike a contract, healthy relationships are built on trust and a willingness to be honest and vulnerable. In the Bible, however, God uses covenant, not contract, as a way to establish genuine relationships with us. We will explore the covenants that God has made with us throughout this Lenten series and the meaning of those covenants for our identity and our lives.

March 4 - Exodus 20:1-17

God gives Moses and the Hebrew people the Ten Commandments so that they will have laws to guide them for their common life together. The 10 Commandments are part of the covenant that God makes with us in the Old Testament. What is the purpose of the law? How can we look at God's law, not as a bunch of rules, regulations, and restrictions, but as a gift from a merciful Creator?

March 11 - Ephesians 2:1-10

Ephesians describes the new covenant that God offers us through Jesus Christ. This text explores the relationships among our sins, the justice of God, our faith, and the mercy of the Lord. Ephesians proclaims that we are saved, not through our inherent goodness, but by the grace of God in Jesus Christ. Ephesians 2 affirms the foundational Protestant belief in the fact that our salvation comes through faith, not because of any good works we do.

March 18 - Jeremiah 31:31-34

Jeremiah compares God's relationship to humanity to the covenant of marriage. Jeremiah says that God is like a husband whose marriage partner has been unfaithful and yet God continues to remain committed to the marriage. In God's covenant with us, God sticks by us even though we often distance ourselves from God through sin.

March 25 - Mark 11:1-11

On Palm Sunday, we hear the story of Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a colt. The crowds gather and praise him, but Jesus turns out to be different than what they have expected. The crowds make wrong assumptions about Jesus and we often misunderstand who he is today. In our relationship and covenant with God, it is important for us to follow where Jesus leads us, even if he takes us places that we would not expect.

March 29 (Maundy Thursday): Mark 15:25-39

On this Maundy Thursday, we will hear the story of Jesus' crucifixion on Good Friday. We see Jesus' great love for us in his willingness to die for our sake. As we share in the sacrament of the Last Supper, what does it mean for us to partake of Jesus' body broken for us and his blood shed for us? How can we honor his sacrifice today?

One Great Hour of Sharing

There will be a special offering collection on Palm Sunday, March 25th, from the Presbyterian Mission titled "One Great Hour of Sharing" (OGHS).

This is a once a year collection for natural disasters, alleviating hunger, and support towards the development of poor and oppressed communities. There will be a handout in the bulletin and there is a special offering envelope for this very worthwhile cause. Over $500 was collected last year. Let's see if we can top that this year. The OGHS ministries are driven, not so much by who the recipients are, but by who we are - faithful and generous followers of Jesus Christ.

Thursday, March 29, 2018
6:00 pm

The night before Jesus was crucified, He shared fellowship and a Passover meal with His disciples and then instituted the first Lord's Supper with the words, "Do This in Remembrance of Me". On Thursday, March 29 at 6 p.m. we will meet for a similar time of food and fellowship followed by the Lord's Supper. The entire evening will be held in the Fellowship Hall starting with a gathering and greeting time, followed by a home cooked meal, a time of worship and ending with the celebration of the Lord's Supper. There will be a sign-up sheet in the gathering space so that the Worship Committee will know how much food to prepare. This evening is a beautiful and meaningful time bringing an end to the Lenten journey we have shared together.

More than 300 million palms fronds are harvested each year for US consumption alone – for Palm Sunday and also for floral displays. Usually, palms are harvested in rain forests that are critical habitats for migrating birds. The more fronds harvesters cut, the more income they generate, which results in overharvesting and threatens the rain forest. Middle men then transport the palms out of the communities for processing where more than half of the palms are discarded because of poor quality. Eco-Palms are responsibly harvested in Guatemala and Mexico and distributed through partnerships in the USA, including through "Enough for Everyone", a ministry of the Presbyterian Hunger Program. The use of Eco-Palms for Palm Sunday helps protect forests, local jobs and sustainable livelihoods in harvesting communities.

The Worship Committee is proud to announce that OBPC will be using Eco-Palms on Palm Sunday, March 25th. You may learn more about Eco-Palms at www.ecopalms.org. We will gather in the fellowship hall to process into worship with the eco-palms.

In addition, the ashes that were used for the Ash Wednesday Lenten Service this year were from the burned eco-palms left over from last year.

Outer Banks Presbyterian Church to Present 2018 Easter Musical

The Music Ministry of the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church will present "The Love of God", a musical on the life of Christ on Saturday, March 17 at 5:00 pm and Sunday, March 18 at 5:00 pm. (Please note the change from doing the musical on Palm Sunday weekend. It is one weekend earlier this year.)

This musical presentation consists of song selections and narrations pulled from various sources by the Church Music Director, Jason Evans. The performance will be given by the Sanctuary Choir of the church along with numerous musical guests all combining to build a 58-voice choir, a 12-piece orchestra and narrators to tell the wonderful story of Jesus' love for us by giving His life on a cross over two thousand years ago. The first portion of the concert will focus on the Love of our God. The second portion will tell the story of the final week of Christ's life from the Triumphal Entry through the Last Supper, Crucifixion, and Resurrection of our Savior. The choir has been working on the musical for weeks.

Guest conductor, Ken Clifton, returns for his tenth time with us to direct the choir and orchestra. Clifton's impressive career includes numerous engagements all around the country spanning time on Broadway in New York City, to Working as a vocal coach at Orlando's Disney World. In addition, Ken has been time on the Outer Banks as musical director for "The Lost Colony" in Manteo for several summers.

Guest solo vocalists include; Pamela Tanner, Melanie Dinkle, Beth Rice, Elaine Reed, Patrice White-Taylor Welch and Brian Hare.

The orchestra will be comprised of: Steve Blackstock, organist; Jason Evans, pianist; David Hopson, drummer; Reid Stockdill, Timpani/Percussion; Timothy Briggs, Electric Bass Guitar; Leslie Erickson, Shannah Boone, and Billy Tanner, violinists; Sue Waters, violist; John Griffin, cellist; Suzanne Blackstock and Katie Blackstock Blanchard, flautists.

We invite all to attend this moving and powerful presentation. Admission is free, and a freewill love offering will be taken. Nursery will be provided. For additional information about the performances, please call 441-5897 or visit us on the web at www.outerbankspresbyterian.org.

A Thank you from The Gem center's Harmony Café

Dear friends from Outer Banks Presbyterian,

I am writing to thank you for the wonderful program, fellowship and lunch we enjoyed at our February Harmony Café! We enjoyed getting to know everyone and the lunch was amazing!

Our GEM family found friends and friendship because you cared enough to prepare a delicious meal and share your personal warmth and empathy at Harmony Café. We hope that you will consider another visit with us.

Hollie we are sorry that Elisabeth wasn't feeling well and we hope she is fully recovered! It was great to spend time with Jody and the youthful musicians were a joy for all of us!

We are grateful the Rev. Jody took time out of his busy schedule to visit with us.

We thank you for thinking of our senior, "seniors" and for supporting the GEM Programs that enhance the care for families facing memory loss. G.E.M. promotes superior memory care with education, training, advocacy, respite (relief from the caregiving role) and referral to local, regional and national services for everyone interested in connecting. Our current programs include Art Classes, Harmony Café, Memory Screenings and educational programs.

All of our programs are enhanced because of our beautiful new office and the learning space you have been so instrumental in creating. We look forward to utilizing it with classes and trainings.

WANTED

The Faith Knitters are "in search of" people who knit or crochet. Last year we donated 200 prayer shawls and we need help to match that number. So if you knit or crochet or want to learn please join us. We meet the second and fourth Tuesdays from 10:00am to noon at the home of Bill Pratt in Martins Point. We have a few people who can't make our knitting sessions and they do it at home and pass on the shawls to us to give out. We have patterns available that can get you started. Call Barbara Nock at 255-5979 for more information. We would love to have you as part of our group.

Ruthie's Kitchen

Our church will be supplying and serving a meal at Ruthie's Kitchen on Tuesday, March 13. It will be at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.
