♦ = Congregation Standing as Able
♦ = Appropriate times to be Seated when Arriving After Service Begins

All Saints (November 1 or the first Sunday in November) is a day of remembrance for the saints, with the New Testament meaning of saints as all Christian people of every time and place. We celebrate the communion of saints as we remember the dead, both of the Church universal and of our local congregations. For this reason, the names of persons in the congregation who have died during the past year will be solemnly read as a Response to the Word.

Today along with all of those who have gone into new life, we recognize nine who have passed away in our church this year: Lynn Holloman Miller, Elizabeth “Liz” Schaub, Clara “Mickey” Meekins, Terry Lynn Collins, Irene Gibbs, Martin Leslie Hammill, Max Strange, Elizabeth “Liz” Hamley, and Arthur “Bud” Sheets.

THE PRAYER OF CONFESION (Spoken in Unison)

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION...................................................... Jean Basnight, Liturgist

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON: Ephesians 1:7-14 ................................. Jean Basnight, Liturgist

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God’s own people, to the praise of his glory.

THE CHORAL ANTHEM: “The Lord Is My Shepherd” (Based on the 23rd Psalm) ............ Allen Pote

The Sanctuary Choir

THE SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON: Ephesians 1:15-23 .......................... The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

ONE: This is the Word of the Lord.
ALL: Thanks be to God

THE SERMON: “An Eternal Inheritance”................................. The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

~ The Liturgy for All Saints ~

♦ THE HYMN NO. 375: “Shall We Gather at the River?”................................. arr. Al Travis
Sanctuary Choir & Congregation
Jason Evans, organ – Hollie Writtenberry, flute

♦ THE LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE (Spoken responsively).......................... Jean Basnight, Liturgist
ONE: Let us remember those who have gone before us whose souls are in the hands of God.
ALL: We are inspired by the people who have nurtured us in the faith and who are no longer with us on this earth.
ONE: In life, these dear friends were weak and vulnerable and fought their own mortality.
ALL: But now in heaven they are sheltered in God’s arms of tender mercy and are at peace!
ONE: Eternal God, we place our trust in you, both in this life and in the life to come.
ALL: Let us give thanks for the lives of the departed who now have their rest in the heavenly kingdom.

♦ THE STATEMENT OF FAITH ........................................ (From A Declaration of Faith, Ch. 10.3)

Death will be destroyed. In the death of Jesus Christ God’s way in the world seemed finally defeated. But death was no match for God. The resurrection of Jesus was God’s victory over death. Death often seems to prove that life is not worth living, that our best efforts and deepest affections go for nothing. We do not yet see the end of death. But Christ has been raised from the dead, transformed, and yet the same person. In his resurrection is the promise of ours. We are convinced the life God wills for each of us is stronger than the death that destroys us. The glory of that life exceeds our imagination but we know we shall be with Christ. So we treat death as a broken power. Its ultimate defeat is certain. In the face of death we grieve. Yet in hope we celebrate life. No life ends so tragically that its meaning and value are destroyed. Nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

~The Sacrament of Holy Communion~

♦ THE COMMUNION HYMN NO. 500: “Be Known to Us in Breaking Bread” ...............ST. FLAVIAN

THE INvITATION TO THE LORD’S TABLE & THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

LEADER: The Lord be with you.

LEADER: Lift up your hearts.
PEOPLE: We lift them up to the Lord.

PEOPLE: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest.

THE LORD’S PRAYER (Spoken in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

We offer communion by intinction.
Dip the bread in the chalice as it is passed to you.

When taking the bread say: This is the body of Christ given for you.
When taking the cup say: This is the blood of Christ shed for you.

Next Week’s Sermon: Isaiah 65:17-25.
The prophet Isaiah speaks of how God is doing a new thing. God is in the process of creating a new heaven and a new earth. Change is constant and often we experience change as unsettling and difficult, but God’s promised change offers us hope and perspective. How can we seek God’s vision for our lives and for all creation?

Welcome to the Outer Banks Presbyterian Church. Our Church exists to worship God in Jesus Christ in Word and Sacrament; to join others to know the joy of God’s forgiveness in Jesus Christ; to grow under the Lordship of Christ and to serve Christ’s world in His name. We invite you to share with us our trust in Jesus Christ and to join us as we strive to:

- Grow and strengthen our FAITH,
- Love and support our FAMILY,
- Reach out to our FRIENDS in need.

We encourage you to read “Sue’s Story,” the inspiration behind these goals in its entirety, on our website, on a brochure in the Gathering Space or on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall. We hope you will be inspired as we have been.

At OBPC, we recognize all of our visitors as God’s children, united as brothers and sisters in Christ. We hope our service inspires you and strengthens your faith. We hope you will join us again in celebration and worship to God. If you are interested in becoming a member or would like to know more about our church or any of our programs, please contact us!

Our church believes providing worship for visitors is a vital part of our mission. Our building was planned to accommodate the many visitors who come to this vacation community. This places an additional financial challenge on our resident membership. We need and welcome financial support from our visitors.
