KILL DEVIL HILLS, NORTH CAROLINA
Nicholas Bowden enjoys a national reputation as an organist and church musician. His energetic style, rhythmic playing and sense of humor make his concerts a unique experience. He is recognized as one of a handful of organists who regularly bring a niche medium of music to great numbers of people, having performed in 32 states and seven countries. He has been a featured artist on some of the world’s great organs including Grace Cathedral (San Francisco), St. Thomas Fifth Avenue (New York), the Crystal Cathedral (Los Angeles), The United States Naval Academy (Annapolis), St. Paul’s Cathedral (London), and the famed Wanamaker Organ at Macy’s Department Store (Philadelphia), the world’s largest organ. He has also appeared as a guest artist on Diane Bish’s “The Joy of Music” television program, “The Hour of Power” from the Crystal Cathedral, “The Coral Ridge Hour,” from Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church, the weekly telecasts of Peachtree Presbyterian Church and National Public Radio.

Mr. Bowden served as Principal Organist at the nation’s largest Presbyterian Church (USA), Peachtree Presbyterian in Atlanta, Georgia for 21 years. He regularly collaborates with some of the world’s great conductors, soloists and instrumentalists for worship services and concerts at the church. The church’s “Nicholas Bowden and Friends” concerts draw thousands of music lovers from across the city each year. These benefit concerts with orchestra, chorus, and organ have generated over one million dollars for community ministries in Atlanta.

A native of Enterprise, Alabama, Mr. Bowden began organ study at age 11, became organist for his church at age 12, and had his first hymn arrangements for organ published at age 16. He attended Mercer University in Macon, Georgia and was the recipient of the prestigious Arthur Rich Scholarship in Music. He was a student of the late Dr. Robert Parris (organ) and Dr. Edward Byrom (conducting). He subsequently served Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and Peachtree Christian Church, Atlanta. Mr. Bowden loves to travel, has a great amateur appreciation of architecture and is a close follower of all things political.

THE WELCOME.................................................................................................................. The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

† THE CALL TO WORSHIP (Spoken responsively) .......................................................... The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

ONE: For the gift of music and song,
ALL: We praise you, O God, in your sanctuary.
ONE: For note and rhythms and harmony,
OLL: We praise you, O God, in your vast firmament.
ONE: For our ancestors in faith, who created song and instrument, and invested in the ministry of music for future generations,
ALL: We praise you, O God, for your creative deeds.
ONE: For all those who for forty years, have offered their gifts and talents in this place to worship you,
ALL: We praise you, O God, with the dedication of our hands and hearts and voices.
ONE: With every breath we take,
ALL: With every song we sing,
ONE: With every word we speak,
ALL: We praise you, O God.

† THE HYMN OF PRAISE No. 848: “Standing on the Promises”................................. arr. J. Carl

Standing on the promises of Christ my king,
through eternal ages let his praises ring;
glory in the highest, I will shout and sing,
standing on the promises of God.

[Refrain] Standing, standing, standing on the promises of God my Savior;
standing, standing, I’m standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises that cannot fail,
when the howling storms of doubt and fear assail,
by the living Word of God I shall prevail,
standing on the promises of God. [Repeat Refrain]

Standing on the promises of Christ the Lord, bound to him eternally by love’s strong cord,
overcoming daily with the Spirit’s sword,
standing on the promises of God. [Repeat Refrain]

Standing on the promises I cannot fall, listening every moment to the Spirit’s call, resting in my Savior as my all in all,
standing on the promises of God. [Repeat Refrain]
The Choral Anthem: “Praise His Holy Name” ........................................ arr. Bradley Knight

The Scripture Reading: Psalm 8 .............................................................. Tanta Luckhardt - Hendricks

You have set your glory above the heavens.
Out of the mouths of babes and infants
you have founded a bulwark because of your foes,
to silence the enemy and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honor.
You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet,
all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

The Choral Anthem: “The Majesty and Glory of Your Name” ....................... Tom Fettke

The Sanctuary Choir & Brass/Percussion
Elaine Spencer, soloist

The Choral Anthem: “To Love Our God” ....................................................... Mark Hayes

Jason Evans, pianist

The Scripture Reading: Philippians 1: 3-6, 9-11 .............................................. Ike McRee

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ.

And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that on the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.
The Choral Anthem: “An Expression of Gratitude” .......................... David Schwoebel

The Closing Remarks .................................................................................. The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore

The Hymn of Sending No. 848: “To God Be the Glory” .............................. arr. Nick Bowden

To God be the glory, great things he hath done!
So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
and opened the life gate that all may go in.

[Refrain] Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the earth hear his voice!
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father thru Jesus the Son,
and give him the glory, great things he hath done!

Great things he hath taught us, great things he hath done,
and great our rejoicing thru Jesus the Son;
but purer, and higher, and greater will be our wonder, our transport, when Jesus we see. [Repeat Refrain]

The Benediction ........................................................................................... The Rev. Dr. Jody Moore
