The Session of OBPC approved an outdoor worship service planned for the last Sunday in July - July 26th. The service was held at 6:00 pm on the east lawn of the church, near the playground. Here are a few pictures of the wonderful evening of reconnecting after 4 months! It was a great joy to see each other! Please stay tuned to your weekly email reminders as well as the church website for when our next in-person gathering will be held, which could be as soon as Sunday, August 16.
Words of Thanksgiving

Thank you to my church family for your prayers, cards and other expressions of support and sympathy during the recent loss of my mother, Blanche L. Robinson.

Love, grace and peace,

Brenda Brown

We are sharing prayers of thanksgiving for our OBPC Session members and the special COVID19 Task Force! They have and are still often meeting to address our church family needs in this tumultuous time. Prayerfully, with God’s guidance, they have sought out the best practices for keeping us connected. We are so thankful for their compassionate understanding of our situations and their diligent work.

Linda Campbell

A Word from Your Pastor

The outdoor worship service that was held on Sunday evening, July 26th, was a great joy for me, and others have also expressed their appreciation. We had about 30 people who were seated socially distant from each other on the church lawn and we also were able to live stream the service for those who were not able to join us in person. I really appreciated the chance to be in the same space with some of our church family. In the coming days, the COVID-19 Task Force and the Session will be reviewing that July 26th service. We are potentially looking at having another in-person worship gathering as soon as August 16th. Please be on the lookout for more information and details about our upcoming worship services in the Wednesday Email News and Notes and on the OBPC website.

During these difficult and uncertain times, the following story told by a taxi driver reminds us about what is really important in life. I arrived at the address and honked the horn. After waiting a few minutes, I honked again. Since this was going to be the last ride of my shift, I thought about just driving away, but instead, I walked to the door and knocked... 'Just a minute,' answered a frail, elderly voice. I could hear something being dragged across the floor.

After a long pause, the door opened. A small woman in her 90’s stood before me. She was wearing a print dress and a pillbox hat with a veil pinned on it, like somebody out of a 1940’s movie. By her side was a small nylon suitcase. The apartment looked as if no one had lived in it for years. All the furniture was covered with sheets. The apartment looked as if no one had lived in it for years. All the furniture was covered with sheets. The walls, no knickknacks or utensils on the counters. In the corner was a cardboard box filled with photos and glassware. 'Would you carry my bag out to the car?' she said. I took the suitcase to the cab, then returned to assist the woman. She took my arm and we walked slowly toward the curb. She kept thanking me for my kindness. 'It's nothing', I told her. 'I just try to treat my passengers the way I would want my mother to be treated.' 'Oh, you're such a good boy, she said.

When we got in the cab, she gave me an address and then asked, 'Could you drive through downtown?' 'It's not the shortest way,' I answered quickly. 'Oh, I don't mind,' she said. 'I'm in no hurry. I'm on my way to a hospice'. I looked in the rear-view mirror. Her eyes were glistening. 'I don't have any family left,' she continued in a soft voice... 'The doctor says I don't have very long.' I quietly reached over and shut off the meter. 'What route would you like me to take?' I asked.

For the next two hours, we drove through the city. She showed me the building where she had once worked as an elevator operator. We drove through the neighborhood where she and her husband had lived when they were newlyweds. She had me pull up in front of a furniture warehouse that had once been a ballroom where she had gone dancing as a girl. Sometimes she'd ask me to slow in front of a particular building or corner and would sit staring into the darkness, saying nothing. As the first hint of sun was cresting the horizon, she suddenly said, 'I'm tired. Let's go now'.

We drove in silence to the address she had given me. It was a low building, like a small convalescent home. Two orderlies came out to the cab as soon as we pulled up. They must have been expecting her. I opened the trunk and took the small suitcase to the door. 'How much do I owe you?' She asked, reaching into her purse. 'Nothing,' I answered. 'You have to make a living,' she said. 'There are other passengers,' I responded. Almost without thinking, I bent and gave her a hug. She held onto me tightly. 'You gave an old woman a little moment of joy,' she said. 'Thank you.' I squeezed her hand, and then walked into the dim morning light. Behind me, a door shut. It was the sound of the closing of a life... For the rest of that day, I could hardly talk. What if that woman had gotten an angry driver, or one who was impatient to end his shift? What if I had refused to take the run, or had honked once, then driven away? On a quick review, I don't think that I have done anything more important in my life. We're conditioned to think that our lives revolve around great moments. But great moments often catch us unaware – beautifully wrapped in what others may consider a small one.

Peace in Christ, Jody Moore

Sermons for August

August 2: Matthew 14:13-21. After the death of John the Baptist, Jesus is distraught. He goes out to pray by himself. When misfortune meets us, God calls us to find comfort in prayer. Then a crowd goes out to meet Jesus and he ends up feeding the five thousand who have gathered. Jesus finds an opportunity to spread joy, giving the crowd that has gathered a foretaste of the kingdom of God. Even amidst disappointments and setbacks, God provides opportunities for us to participate in ministry and to serve our neighbors. We will celebrate the sacrament of virtual communion during the worship service.

August 16: Romans 8:31-39. We all face obstacles and adversity in life. There are times that we may feel overwhelmed at the hardships we face, but Romans 8 reminds us that our almighty God is for us. In some of the most beautiful words in the entire Bible, Paul asserts that there is nothing in all creation that can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ.

August 23: Romans 12:1-21. Faith is about more than believing. Having faith in God also means that we try to behave in a certain way. This text reveals the kind of actions and practices that are consistent with our Christian faith. How can we “walk the walk” in our daily lives?

August 30: Matthew 16:21-28. Peter makes the bold assertion that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the living God. Immediately following that claim, Peter then resists following the Messiah’s plans to go to Jerusalem where he will undergo great suffering and be killed. Jesus rebukes Peter by telling him, "get behind me, Satan." As we read in this passage, some of Jesus’ teachings were quite demanding. It is human nature for us to resist Jesus’ high and sacrificial calling. Jesus invites us, as his followers, to deny ourselves and take up our cross, as Jesus himself did. Our faith teaches that it is through giving of ourselves that we receive God’s eternal blessings.
News from the Presbyterian Women

The Presbyterian Women finished last season with excellent participation in “Zoomed” meetings. Therefore, we’re planning to start out the new fall sessions using Zoom. Maggie Snyder has agreed to be our leader again. Mollie Bass will conduct the lessons which are on The Psalms. The first Zoom session is scheduled for Wednesday, September 16, at 7:00pm. It is for ALL Presbyterian women. Zoom does not limit the number of participants. If you wish to participate, please send an email to Bev Jones at: beverlykoops@yahoo.com For those who will not be Zooming, PW is working on other ways to gather with social distancing.

Pre-arrangements for picking up the lesson study guide books, updating your PW directory listings, and paying the participation dues will be confirmed before the September event. So, welcome to the start of the new season.

We are praising the Lord for health, and compassionate, understanding friends!

Nominations for Elder Class of 2023

The Nominating Committee is beginning to work on selecting 3 persons to serve as Elders for the class of 2023. An elder should be a person who is committed to their faith in Jesus Christ, is a dedicated member of Outer Banks Presbyterian Church, and works well with a team as we seek to serve the Lord. The Nominating Committee would like the help of the congregation. Ordinarily, we have placed a ballot box in the gathering space for you to indicate your suggestions. This is not possible while the building is closed, so we encourage anyone with nominations to contact directly the two elder representatives on the Nominating Committee, Bobby Gentry and Bob Messinger.

Attending an Outdoor Service

What to know . . .

Here are the general guidelines for use when attending an Outdoor Worship Service here at Outer Banks Presbyterian Church!

Face masks are required. If you do not have a mask, the church will provide a disposable mask for you upon arrival. Masks must be worn at all times during the service.

To help us plan for the service, we ask that you pre-register by completing an attendance form, which can be found at the church website or attached to our weekly E-newsletter. You can also pre-register by calling the church office at 252-441-5897.

Come equipped for OBX weather! We plan to worship unless lightning, thunderstorms, or rain threaten us. We recommend sunglasses and wide-brim hats. Sunscreen and bug spray might be useful. If the outside service cannot be held due to inclement weather, the service will be cancelled and live-streamed inside the church. Only the worship leaders will participate if the service is moved inside.

We will practice safety with physical/social distancing. You are asked to bring your own lawn chairs. The grass area on the east side of the church will have landscape flags marking safe locations that will be at least 6-feet apart. You would place your lawn chair at one of these flags. Persons living in the same household may sit at the same location. If you do not have lawn chairs, some cleaned and sanitized chairs will be available for your use. A table will be placed at the location on which you will find hand sanitizers, a few bulletins, and disposable facial masks if you do not have a mask.

Parking will be in the normal parking lot locations. Persons who experience mobility issues may park on the grassed area on the east side of the church at the location of the service. A church parking attendant will direct you. When you arrive and depart, please stay at least 6-feet in front of or behind the person nearest you.

The church building will be open for restroom use only. Entrance to the church will be only through the door on the east side of the church next to the playground.

A modified Service Bulletin will be emailed to those pre-registering and will be placed on the church website. Please consider printing your own copy or viewing the bulletin on your device.

For more information, please call the church office or your Eldercare person. Ushers will be available to assist you at the service.
Please welcome new members Jim & Cora Huit, who joined OBPC at a Session meeting on July 22nd. The Huitts transferred their membership from First Presbyterian Church in Richmond. They have had a summer home in the Outer Banks for quite a while, but recently decided to make it their permanent home. The Huitts will be splitting their time between the Outer Banks and New Zealand, where their two daughters live. (They also have a son who lives in the U.S.) Here is the Huitt’s contact information:

When we return to in-person worship, two ushers will be needed to serve at each service. The responsibilities of an usher will be a little bit different when in-person worship begins. Instead of handing out bulletins, the ushers will direct worshipers to a table where they can pick up their own bulletin. Instead of passing offering plates, the ushers will point worshipers to stationary offering plates where individuals may place their gifts. One usher will now serve at the front door and one at the south door (the only doors open to enter the church). They will greet those entering and encourage them to remain six feet apart and direct them to one of the Elders at the entrance to the Sanctuary who will direct them to their seat.

If you would be willing to serve as an usher during this reopening process please contact Cathie in the church office. Serving as an usher during these uncertain times is a vital aspect to OBPC safely reopening. Some of our regular ushers will be unable to serve at this time, so it is important for some new people to volunteer.
News from Outreach & Witness

Room In the Inn
Our church had a few volunteers provide meals and chaperone. Needless to say, it was a very challenging season for them. RITI housed less than 10 people each week, both male and female. They extended the season, partly because the spring weather was bad and mostly because COVID reduced employment opportunities. They ended up housing the clients at the RITI office--usually around 5 people. RITI has been recruiting volunteers for planning meetings -- one group concerning the program and one group concerning the volunteers. If someone would like to coordinate OBPC volunteers as part of the Witness and Outreach Committee, please contact Linda Campbell (lindagbc103@gmail.com) or Jeanne Martie (jlmartie@charter.net). If you are interested in being in an RITI group meeting, please contact Betse Kelly, director, at 252-305-3885 or by email at obxroomintheinn@gmail.com.

Faith Knitters
The Faith Knitters held a year-end meeting on June 28th to wrap up our year. We did our show and tell where everyone brought what they had finished while we were on “lockdown”. We had finished 49 prayer shawls and we all ooded & awed at each one. We had a great “gab fest” catching up on each other’s lives. We then shared a smorgasbord of snacks in which everyone brought something to share. We didn’t get to knitting that day but we sure enjoyed being together. Those who attended were Yvonne Blomberg, Ellen Carrico, Susan Furlough, Clara Ann Baker, Karen Lurie, Barbara Nowland, Linda Younkin and Barbara Nock. We don’t meet during the summer. We will begin again in September and our first meeting will be September 8th depending on the restrictions due to Corvid-19. Stay tuned for any updates. If you’d like to join Faith Knitters, contact Barbara Nock (nocktwice@embarqmail.com).

Ruthie’s Kitchen
The kitchen has been closed since early March. They hope to open again in September. Our church is tentatively scheduled to serve Tuesday, September 15. Linda Campbell (lindagbc103@gmail.com) will keep you posted about if it reopens, and if it does, planning a meal, as we get closer to September.

Communion Guild
The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be held virtually on Sunday, August 2, 2020 at 10:00 am. Please join us for this meaningful time as we celebrate the sacraments and remember what Jesus did on the cross for each of us!

Assistance from Your Church Family
Two important resources to remember during this time are our Prayer Team and our Assistance Coordinator.

• If you have any request that you would like the prayer team to lift up, please share it with the prayer coordinators. Our prayer coordinators are: Jean Basnight and Rosalyn Pugh and you may share a request with them by phone at 252-480-1028 (Home) or 252-619-7661 (Cell).

• Elder Barbara Nock is coordinating services and requests by members and friends who need any type of assistance. Twenty-four people have volunteered to help. If you or someone you know needs assistance with groceries, pharmacy pick-up, or anything else, please contact Barbara at 252-255-5979 or nochtwice@embarqmail.com.

There are two ways to give to the church during this temporary closure. You may mail pledges and donations to the office at PO Box 2199, Kill Devil Hills, NC 27948. Or, you may give online. Just click on the Give Now button on our church website, then follow the directions for online donations.
July Session Meeting Highlights

The Session of Outer Banks Presbyterian Church met on Wednesday, July 22, 2020, at 4:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Social distancing and mask wearing were observed.

All Elders, including Ron Baker, Ron Campbell, Bobby Gentry, Ike McRee, Bob Messinger, Barbara Nock, Barb Nowland, Evelyn Webb, and Judy Whittle, were present. Rev. Dr. Jody Moore presided and opened the meeting with prayer and a devotional. Clerk of Session Gary McGee was present to record actions of the meeting.

Two new members were received by the Session: Cora and Jim Huitt, Jr. by transfer of letters from First Presbyterian Church, Richmond, VA. The Huitts will reside part of the year at the Outer Banks and part of the year in New Zealand.

The Omnibus Motion was approved as follows:

A. Minutes of the June 17, 2020 meeting were approved as presented.
B. Confirmed e-vote of June 24, 2020 unanimously approving the church’s patriotic performance by the Music Department on July 5, 2020 under Session-adopted parameters.
C. Confirmed e-vote of June 30, 2020 approving guidelines for an outdoor worship service on July 26, 2020 at 6:00 p.m.
D. Confirmed e-vote of July 13, 2020 allowing the Youth Group to proceed with plans to attend a “back home” retreat at Montreat, NC during the week of July 18-25, 2020.
E. Confirmed e-vote of July 16, 2020 allowing a private funeral service for family and friends of Jim Jackson on July 23, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary, officiated by Dr. Moore, provided self-distancing is practiced and facial coverings are worn. Nonie Booth had volunteered to provide a small reception for the family afterwards, which the family declined.
F. Received a report from the Worship Committee Moderator Nonie Booth regarding opinions about re-opening the church.

Worship Committee Moderator Nonie Booth regarding opinions about re-opening the church.

The Session spent considerable time discussing the church’s reopening strategies due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. Specific changes were made as follows:

1. The outdoor worship service on July 26, 2020 will be live-streamed and recorded for posting on the church website.
2. The 50-person maximum attendance on July 26, 2020 will be eliminated and no limit on attendance will be imposed at that outdoor service. Worship Moderator Nonie Booth will monitor attendance and make arrangements for social distancing if necessary. Pre-registration would still be required and names of attendees would be maintained in order to socially trace in the event of a Covid-19 infection following the service.
4. The Session asked that the live-streaming technology be continuously monitored in view of previous audio/video problems. Live-streaming will be continued for the time being if the technology can be used without major disruptions; if not, then pre-recording of services will be considered while the Congregation is not meeting in person in the Sanctuary.
5. The Session approved small church groups of 10 or less people to meet inside the church provided a reservation is made in advance and space is available, participants practice social distancing of at least six feet and wear face masks. Any small group meeting in the church would be responsible for sanitizing all hard surfaces touched and chairs used prior to departing.
6. The Session authorized Bev Jones and other medical profession members she might enlist to prepare a Covid-19 Pandemic article for the church newsletter.

Dr. Moore reported that he would officiate at a funeral of a non-member on August 15, 2020 to be held on the beach. He also provided an update on plans for Jim Jackson’s funeral on July 23, 2020 at the church. Dr. Moore provided an update on service projects supported by the Church Youth Group while at their retreat in Montreat. The Pastor reported that Tom Williamson and his friend Roberta will be married on October 17, 2020 at the church, with a reception following under one of three plans, dependent on the status of the Covid-19 Pandemic at that time.

There being no further business at 5:40 p.m., the Session adjourned with prayers.
The Adult Sunday School Class has continued to meet weekly via Zoom. We meet at our regular time of 9 A.M. on Sunday and we finish in time to switch over to the Live Stream of the Worship Service. Instructions for joining the live Zoom class are posted on the Church Facebook page on Friday morning. These Zoom classes are recorded and available on You Tube in case you can’t join in on Sunday morning! The links to the You Tube videos are also posted on the Church Facebook page. There are also e-mail notifications and e-mails with suggested readings and thoughts. If you would like to be included in our e-mail list, please let the church office know.

Since the pandemic started we have studied two books. The first was Beyond Fundamentalism: Religious Extremism in the Age of Globalization by religious scholar and Muslim, Reza Aslan. This book gave an excellent contemporary view of Islam vs. Radical Islam as well as extremism in other faith traditions. Currently we are working through the book Jesus, the Pope and a Protestant Walk into a Bar by Paul Rock and Bill Tammeus. Paul Rock is the Head Pastor at Second Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, Missouri and this book is based on a sermon series that Pastor Rock delivered in 2014. It stresses the similarities between the Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions as well as the basic theological differences. Pastor Rock stresses the need to focus on our similarities and this book promotes a spirit of ecumenism as we try to be disciples of Jesus in our modern world.

These two books have sparked an interest in further study of comparative religion and we will embark on that study in September. We are currently in the process of selecting a book which will guide us through that study. Please join us! All are welcome!
